

6. Who is primarily responsible for setting policies governing the residential computer network?
(Choose one)

- Central IT
- Housing
- IT Security
- Legal affairs
- Networking
- IT advisory committee
- Other - Please explain:

	Count	Percentage
Central IT	61	60%
Housing	10	10%
IT Security	8	8%
Legal Affairs	0	0%
Networking	8	8%
IT advisory committee	7	7%
ResNet*	1	1%
Collaboration*	6	6%

* - These response options were added post-survey based on responses to the "Other - please explain" response option.

7. Who is primarily responsible for enforcing policies governing the residential computer network? (Choose one)

- Central IT
- Housing
- IT Security
- Legal affairs
- Networking
- IT advisory committee
- Other – Please explain:

	Count	Percentage
Central IT	56	56%
Housing	12	12%
IT Security	13	13%
Legal Affairs	0	0%
Networking	14	14%
IT advisory committee	0	0%
ResNet*	2	2%
Other	1	1%
Collaboration*	2	2%

* - These response options were added post-survey based on responses to the "Other - please explain" response option.

 - The respondent whose response is classified as "Other" responded with a unique response that can neither be classified into an existing response option nor more clearly identified without compromising the confidentiality of that respondent

 8. Does your institution ever block, filter, or otherwise restrict any services for security purposes, in any manner or situation? (Choose one)

- No
- Yes
- Other – Please explain:

	Count	Percentage
No	6	6%
Yes	95	94%